

| Elected Officials

Elected Officials is the group of singular Elected Officials which form a set of people who make important decisions about the world and its Jurisdiction.

Elected Officials are elected into their position during an Election.

| Elected Official

An Elected Official is an individual who has been voted into the Government's group of Elected Officials.

| Rights of an Elected Official

An Elected Official also has all the rights of a Citizen and in addition has the following elevated abilities when compared to Citizens.

| Participate in Government Meetings

All Elected Officials must attend Governmental Meetings when available to. Citizens cannot participate in Governmental Meetings, however they are allowed to view them.

| Call for Governmental Meetings

Any Elected Official can call for a Governmental Meeting at any time, however, this doesn't mean the meeting will occur.

| Add Public Tasks without a Government Meeting

An Elected Official can add a Public Task without requiring the approval of a Governmental Meeting, however they cannot exploit this to complete a Public Project in small parts.

| Add Public Projects with the approval of a Governmental Meeting

An Elected Official can add a Public Project if they gain the approval of the Elected Officials.

I Collect Taxes and Fines

An Elected Official can collect Taxes and Fines from Citizens and themselves. If an Elected Official is found to be mishandling tax or fine collection they will be immediately removed from office and are subject to Criminal Punishment.

I Officialize Fines

An Elected Official can officialize Fines that Citizens (including themselves) submit. If a Fine is too little or too much for the Crime the Elected Official can negotiate the terms of the Fine in order to officialize it.

I Incur Criminal Punishments

An Elected Official can incur (issue) Criminal Punishments on Citizens who have committed a Crime.

I Allocate Small Properties without the approval of a Government Meeting

An Elected Official can allocate Small Property for themselves and others without approval of a Governmental Meeting. Allocated land must be allocated via purchase detailed in Purchasing Land.

I Allocate Large Properties with the approval of a Governmental Meeting

An Elected Official can allocate Large Property for themselves and others with the approval of a Governmental Meeting. Allocated land must be allocated via purchase detailed in Purchasing Land.

I Allocate Subsurface Land Provisions

An Elected Official can allocate Subsurface Land Provisions for themselves and others. They must determine a provision Y level before granting a provision.

I Adjust the Circumstantial Tax Value

An Elected Official who is currently present in MC:BSR-S2 can adjust the Circumstantial Tax Value by 0.05 on each Tax Period before tax collection. Two or multiple Elected Officials can adjust in opposite directions and cancel each other out. The adjustment goes into effect the this Tax Period.

I Postpone a Tax Period

An Elected Official can postpone the Tax Period if no Elected Officials are present to collect Taxes. If a Tax Period is postponed, the Taxes for the current period are owed during the next period.

I Issue and Sign Tax Books

An Elected Official must write and sign tax books correctly through the Taxes process and mail them to Citizens.

I Earn Governmental Employment Salary

An Elected Official earns a salary for working as part of the Government. 15% floored, of all collected Taxes from each Tax Period is split equally (rounded) between all Elected Officials aside from the Treasurer who receives a double portion.

I Terminate Vehicles

An Elected Official has the right to terminate vehicles in Public Property.

I Create Millages with the Approval of a Government Meeting

An Elected Official can create a Millage with the approval of a approval of a Governmental Meeting.

I Organize Task Forces with the approval of a Governmental Meeting

An Elected Official can organize a task force of either volunteers or conscripts with approval of a Governmental Meeting. Volunteers should always be taken before conscription is applied. If users are conscripted and refuse to comply it is considered a Crime. It is also considered a Crime if members do not put effort into completing the assigned task.

All members of a task force must be fairly and equally* compensated in currency for their participation. Volunteers may be compensated extra, however, no more than 150% the rate of conscripts. The amount of compensation is to be decided during the initial Governmental Meeting. Task force members have the right to request food and other supplies to aid them with their assignment. If the Government fails to supply resources necessary for the task it is considered a Crime on all Elected Officials.

Members of the task force must sign a contract for their participation to be valid and enforceable. Task forces should not be formed without a probable cause and task force participation enforcement becomes invalid if conscription is permanent; task forces including conscripts must have a definitive ending period where conscripts are released. Task forces including conscripts cannot last for more than 10 Tax Periods.

| Exchange Currency for Debt Value

An Elected Official can exchange their physical currency for a debt currency equal to 120% the currency amount they exchanged in flooded. Debt value can only be paid directly into Taxes and cannot be re-exchanged as physical currency.

| Rules for Elected Officials

| Impeachment

An Elected Official may be forcefully removed from office if at least one Elected Official and a Citizen agree to start an impeachment vote. An impeachment vote follows the following steps:

1. The Elected Official calls for a Governmental Meeting
2. During the meeting all Citizens vote yea or nay on whether to remove an Elected Official from the Government where yea is confirmation to remove the Elected Official
3. If the Elected Official has more than 2/3rds of the votes as yea then they will be forced to leave the Government for the current term and the next person in order from the previous Election will be moved into the Government.

| Maximum Term Length

If any one Elected Official is part of the Government for more than 5 consecutive terms the top Elected Official of the last Election should be removed from vote in the next Election. The count of consecutive terms resets if any one Elected Official is removed from the Government as a result of this policy.